Our guest speakers are Carolyn Jaime and her Mother, Catherine Grisbacher --- Both Licensed Social Workers! Ms Jaime is Director of a Residential Program. She enjoys the challenges and rewards of helping dogs and cats with special needs. In her private practice, she specializes in those who are dealing with issues surrounding their pet's disabilities and illnesses, including end of life issues and grief.

Mrs. Grisbacher has been rescuing, rehabilitating and fostering many kinds of animals for years. She enjoys teaching others about wildlife and caring for domestic animals.
